

Handwriting

Good handwriting improves my presentation!

This is our handwriting scheme.

We have four rules for handwriting:

We have four rules for handwriting.

We join all lower-case letters except g, j and y.

We join all lower-case letters except g, j and y.

We do not join capital letters

We do not join capital letters.

We start all capitals and numbers at the top B, M, 9 5

We start all capitals and numbers at the top.

We cross 't' and 'i' and 'j' at the end of words

We cross 't' and 'i' and 'j' at the end of words.

For writing we sit with our feet on the ground and our non-writing hand is up on the table holding the book we are writing in. We hold our pencil correctly between our bent thumb and our first finger, resting on the middle joint of our middle finger.