Pupil Premium Strategy Report 2023-24

Rationale for Expenditure

PPG pupils require accelerated progress in the three main curriculum areas of Maths, English and Reading, as well as support in their personal socio-emotional development. Parents also require support to enable them manage both their personal emotional demands and to offer appropriate support to their children. A In addition, Speech & Language remains the highest specialist intervention identified among our pupils, even those who are ineligible for the PPG. This has remained a focal point, along with other support, especially as our number of EAL (English as Additional Language) children continues to increase. An experienced teacher with strong language skills provides ongoing support to the Nursery and Reception classes, ensuring targeted support for the language needs in the EYFS. TAS also support with behaviour skills and small-group work with pupils.

Evidence shows that good teaching is the most important lever schools have to improve outcomes for disadvantaged pupils. We continue to support all teachers to provide Quality First teaching across the school.

In the 2020/21 year, the CoVID-19 pandemic and subsequent school closures engendered unique issues across all children, for which government allocated a small funding to provide catch-up. As usual, the total cost of provision has to be supplemented by the school. This is detailed in a separate report on the Catch-up funding. Other school initiatives such as the Magic Breakfast helped to ensure that no child was left hungry, through deliveries to homes during the lockdown. The most vulnerable pupils were provided with devices to ensure they could access remote learning throughout the lockdown.

We continue to support all pupils through access to a wide and deep curriculum, including the Arts comprising Music, Art & DT and ICT.
